

CONTENTS

NOTE.—This book is made up of separate parts, or sections, as indicated by their titles, and the page numbers of each usually begin with 1. In the list of contents the titles of the parts are given in the order in which they appear in the book, and under each title is a full synopsis of the subjects treated.

PRINCIPLES OF MODERN SELLING

	PAGE
Selling as a Business Force.....	1
High place of salesmanship in business; Success of business dependent on effective distribution of goods.
Old and Modern Salesmanship.....	5
Salesmen of today and yesterday; Former sales policy; Modern sales policy; Salesmanship a Profession; Spirit of service.
Salesmanship a Science or an Art.....	12
Science and art defined; Learning the art of selling; How the science of salesmanship is acquired; Creative salesmanship.
Qualifications of Salesmen.....	16
Basis of qualifications; Self-development; Knowledge of the customer; Knowledge of the commodity; Details of the sale.
Advantages of Salesmanship.....	24
Comparison of salesmanship with other lines of business; Salesmanship as a stepping stone to other positions; Demand for salesmen.
Study of Salesmanship.....	28
The natural born salesman; methods of learning salesmanship.

THE CUSTOMER

	PAGE
Buying Motives.....	1
Why study the customer? The sales appeal.
Instincts Dictate Actions.....	3
The Principal Instincts.....	4
Curiosity; The handling instinct; Gregariousness; The desire to be a leader; Submissive instinct; Instinct of desire for approval; Acquisitive instinct; Instinct to make a profit; Instinct to secure the necessities of Life; Parental instinct; Sex instinct; Fighting instinct; Play instinct.
Habits.....	34
How habits differ from instincts; How to appeal to habits; Linking interests with proposition.
Types of Customers.....	43
The impulsive type; The deliberate buyer; The gruff customer; The argumentative customer; The conceited customer; The indifferent buyer; The undecided customer; The cautious buyer; The woman buyer.
Some Common Traits.....	63
A hint to the salesman; People cannot be driven; People are lazy; People are selfish; People reflect those whom they meet; People are in a hurry; People are prone to postpone.

THE COMMODITY

	PAGE
Why Know Your Goods?.....	1
What commodity means; Knowledge versus a glib tongue; What knowledge includes; How specific statements help.
What the Well-Informed Salesman Can Do.....	9
Render expert service; Build customer's interest; Inspire confidence; Develop self-confidence; Develop enthusiasm; Remove drudgery from selling work; Overcome objections.
Analyzing the Selling Points.....	19
Study of the Goods.....	19
Tearing the goods apart; Asking questions about the goods; Nature and history of materials.
Study of the Place of Production.....	26
Study of Printed Matter.....	28
Availability of sales literature; Sales manuals; Courses of instruction.
Views of Prospective Buyers.....	33
Point of view; Variance in point of view; Practice of depart- ment-store man; Viewpoint of acquaintances; Retailer's point of view.
Learning From Others.....	36
Study of Competing Goods.....	38
How to Make an Analysis.....	40
Analysis of house and lot; Analysis of a pair of shoes; Analysis of summer hotel; Analysis of kitchen cabinet.
Using the Analysis.....	56
Selling to oneself; Procedure where a line is sold; Language to use; Occasions for use of technical language.

